

September 15, 2025: On Donald Trump's Second Administration Being the Worst I have Seen

I have been following politics closely since the 90's. I can tell you for a fact that I was not a 'fan' of Rush Limbaugh. I can express to you how upset I was at Obama, Bush I, II, and III. I can express that Clinton was terrible.

But, truly, I have never been more concerned about America's future than I am today.

Donald Trump has no business running a government. This administration is absolutely moving in the wrong direction and continues to double down on every mistake that it has made.

MAGA, in the end, faded into Donald Trump's over-inflated ego.

Personally, I cannot remember any administration being more illegal than the one I see today.

I am saddened, embarrassed, and apologetic for ever having been a supporter of this criminal's efforts to lead America.
